

HELP WANTED!

We have a busy and growing store, and with it comes the need for a few specific volunteer roles. See below for the newest volunteer job descriptions and how to apply.

Note – volunteers receive a 20% discount to The Acorn once per week when they work a shift.

Children's Clothing Volunteer

- Sort incoming clothing (boys, girls, seasonal, baby)
- Learn to price name-brand items at a higher price
- Pack up and store off-season clothes
- Hang children's clothes and fill the store floor
- Price/hang/sort maternity may also be a small part of this person's duties

Clothing Receiver Volunteer

- Sort incoming clothing for men, women, and juniors
- Learn from Deb what we keep and do not keep, and what sells and what doesn't sell
- Be attentive to the condition of the clothing looking for rips, stains, smells, missing buttons, and broken zippers
- Have a general idea of name brands, boutiques, and designer brands. Be able to separate these items from regular items
- This volunteer will train with Deb for at least 2-4 training shifts

Clothing Inventory Volunteer

- Price clothing/put inventory on the racks/possibly sort clothing as well
- Double-check and hang already sorted inventory
- Price boutique items according to the general guidelines provided by Deb
- Be able to put inventory out on the floor as needed throughout the week

How to Apply for Any of these Specific Volunteer Positions:

If you are a new or a current volunteer, go to AcornResale.org/volunteer-interest-form to complete the form and mention the Volunteer position you are interested in. We will contact you to schedule your training with Deb, our assistant manager (for clothing).
